

Ann America vs the gramophone girl

Jacqueline ran quickly through a blind alley, disoriented and not sure where she was going while two mysterious shadows stalked her from afar.

Stop right there young lady said Chemo Crusader

Jacqueline stopped and turned her head to where her voice came from, what do you want, she said.

The boss wants to see you and I'm going to take you before him.

No, I will never accompany you, leave me alone, Jacqueline launched a powerful sonic wave against Chemo Crusader that he almost couldn't dodge.

While that battle was taking place Ann America watched the events, I must save that poor girl she said, Chemo Crusader is being controlled by an unknown man to carry out his evil plans.

Stop resisting, you're going to come with me said Chemo Crusader never said jacqueline

The boss can give you everything you've ever wanted, all you have to do is submit to him, said Chemo Crusader.

All I want is to be left alone, said Jacqueline.

Ann America got to where the fight was taking place and tried to save the gramophone girl.

Hey, who are you? Jacqueline told Ann America, I already told you I don't want to go with you two.

Jacqueline fired a round of sonic waves that hurled Ann America against the wall.

Chemo Crusader uses her thermonuclear shield to protect himself from Jacqueline's sonic waves, you come with me, he said and proceeded to knock her out.

Ann America recovers from the blow and says, Chemo Crusader leave the girl alone, I know you are being mind controlled by a member of the American Mafia.

And who told you that I am being controlled by the mafia, what a ridiculous idea, I am doing this of my own free will, said Chemo Crusader.

But why? Who do you work for?

A few days ago, Chemo Crusader said, I met a being of unimaginable power who promised me what I most wanted in exchange for working for him.

And what was that? Ann America said.

The extermination of the undesirables, the eradication of the evil that is destroying this country.

You killed them! said Ann America

No, Chemo Crusader said, I did something much more efficient, I wished they were erased from existence, people will remember their names but they are gone.

Damn you, said Ann America, how could you do it?

I saved humanity from the undesirables, you should thank me, said Chemo Crusader.

Suddenly a portal opened behind Chemo Crusader and he proceeded to approach it.

I have to go now, the boss wants to see me.

Stop there, Ann America said, but it was too late. Chemo Crusader had come through the portal and kidnapped the gramophone girl.

Only uncertainty is clear in this bizarre situation, will Ann America free the gramophone girl from the terrifying clutches of the big bad that now controls the Chemo Crusader or will she fail miserably in the attempt?
